

Wendy Morton-Huddleston

Principal – Grant Thornton LLP

Wendy Morton-Huddleston is a Principal in Grant Thornton's Public Sector practice with over 17 years of experience. As a Financial Management Advisory, Brand and Solution Leader, Wendy advises Public Sector clients on financial management transformation, strategic planning and enterprise risk management. Wendy is the current President of the Association of Government Accountants (AGA) Washington, DC Chapter and an executive sponsor for the Women at Grant Thornton and Allies Business Resource Group (BRG) and promotes the mission of recruitment, retention and advancement of women into leadership positions.

Wendy is a Certified Government Financial Manager (CGFM) and Project Management Professional (PMP). Wendy holds a B.S. in Finance - Norfolk State University, MBA in Management, M.S in Finance – University of Maryland and an Executive Leadership Certificate from Cornell University. Wendy is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, National Association for Female Executives, and the Project Management Institute.

Publications

Association of Government Accountants Journal of Government Financial Management, Winter 2016. Sustaining Improper Payment Prevention Programs.

Association of Government Accountants Journal of Government Financial Management, Summer 2016. Rolling the Dice with that Government Card? Not so Fast.

Journal of the National Grants Management Association - Spring 2016. Government Accountability Office (GAO) Standards for Internal Control in the Federal Government (Green Book) and Grants Management Lifecycle Examples.